2 SAMUEL SUMMARIZED in a word or phrase: "Monarchy"

2 SAMUEL

A time of transition – from "no" king to "our" king (Saul) to "God's" king (David)
Saul is dead ... and so is his dynasty (1 Sam 15)
The kingdom has been turned over to God's king, David
But right now, Israel is a house divided ...
Some follow David ...
... while others follow Ishbosheth

LESSON THEME: No kingdom can tolerate two kings

The True King's Trials

An enemy's lie (1:1-16)
 Executing an Amalekite, the Lord's enemy
A nation's funeral (1:17-27)
 Heartfelt mourning for Saul and Jonathan
A king's challenger (2:1-11)
 Ishbosheth, Saul's fourth son
A kingdom's civil war (2:12-5:3)
 Caused by Abner and Ishbosheth's self-serving ambition and rebellion

The False King's Treachery

From Saul's terminated dynasty (1 Sam 15)
 (see "Family Tree of Saul" chart, p. 3)
Ishbosheth and Abner reject God's king
 David's reign and right to rule
They lay claim to a throne that isn't theirs
 Ishbosheth, the puppet
 Abner, the power behind the throne
The end is conflict, death and sorrow

A Tale Of Two Kings

The true king, David ...
 Seeks unity and peace under his reign
 Is obedient, righteous and compassionate
 Waits patiently for "follower-ship"
The false king, Ishbosheth ...
 Rejects God's Word and will for his own agenda
 Claims what is no longer his
 Rebels, promoting disunity, confusion and death
 Asserts his pretend authority out of pride and need

APPLICATION: No kingdom can tolerate two kings

We're At "Civil War"...

When we give the Lord a portion of our heart, but retain another portion for "Ishbosheth"

When we grow complacent about our divided allegiance and tolerate having two kings (Jesus and ourselves) over the "land of Mansoul"

When we justify allowing things to remain outside of God's will ... even knowing one day they'll rebel and cause trouble

When "Ishbosheth" Is In Charge

In our private lives ...

Self-determination; self-reliance; prayerlessness

Self-indulgence (lust, materialism, etc.)

Live by the "when/then" principle

In our public lives ...

Focus on self-importance and self-promotion

Practice situational morality

Unbiblical mood, temper or words

Pretense ("to appear") and spiritual hypocrisy

The False King's Treachery

Romans 5-8

5	6	7	8
Justification	Sanctification
Penalty	Power
Position	Progress
Christ died for us	We died with Christ to sin	We died to the Law	We walk in the Spirit
New position New standing	We died to sin as a master	We died to our own self-effort	We are transformed by the Spirit

When "David" Is In Charge

We obey God's Word by God's Spirit

We believe God's will for our lives is best

We live all of our life—in private as well as in public—in an "above reproach" manner

We pursue humility and unity everywhere

We pursue loyalty ... even if we've been rejected

We find strength in the Lord rather than trying to "strengthen" our own hand

Application

Who's the King of your heart today ... really? Would those closest to you agree or disagree?

Do you believe God's will for your life is best?

Are there any areas of your life you're withholding from "David" for "Ishbosheth?"

Are there any areas of your life you're allowing to remain outside of God's Word and will, knowing that one day those "inhabitants" will rebel and cause trouble?

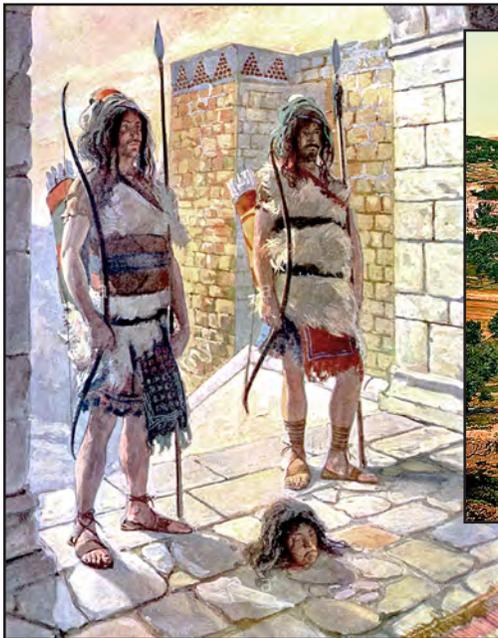

"But if you refuse to serve the Lord, then choose today whom you will serve. Would you prefer the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates? Or will it be the gods of the Amorites in whose land you now live? But as for me and my family, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15

“Rechab and Baanah Bring the Head of Ish-Bosheth”
by James Tissot

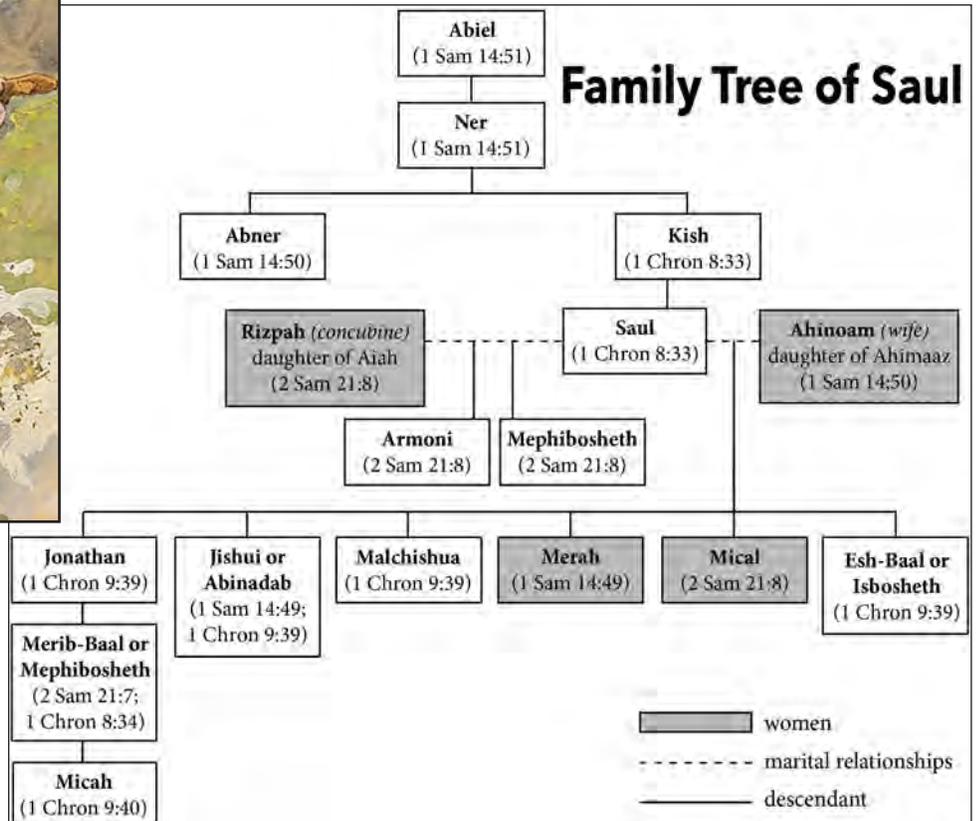

Hebron, located 30 miles south of Jerusalem in the historic area of Judah, is the largest city in the southern West Bank of the Palestinian Authority. It is one of the oldest cities in the world and is considered by Jews to be the second-holiest city after Jerusalem.

Civil War Between North and South

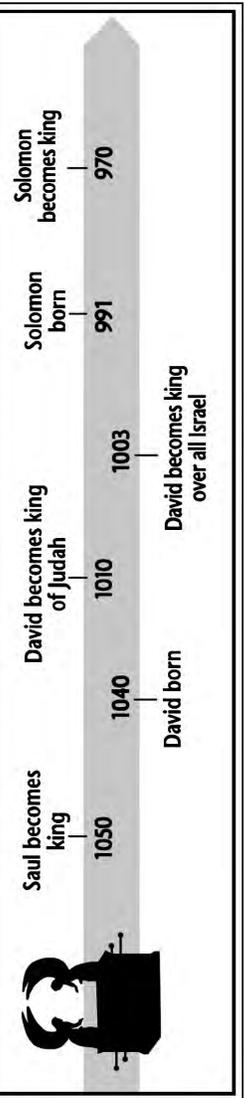

After the death of Saul, David did not immediately ascend to the throne of a united Israelite kingdom. First he was crowned king of Judah, which he ruled for seven and a half years from the city of Hebron (2 Sam. 2:1–7, 11). During much of this period, a civil war was fought between David and the heirs of Saul (3:1). One of these sons, Ishbosheth, (or Esh-Baal, 1 Chr. 8:33), pieced together a kingdom in the north, aided behind the scenes by Abner, one of Saul's generals (1 Sam. 2:8, 9). A great deal of blood was shed in determining whether David or Ishbosheth would ultimately rule Israel (2:12–4:12).

This tragic period in the nation's history was a reflection of the people's earlier insistence on having a king (8:4–9, 19–22). Had they waited for God to appoint a ruler in His own good time, the heartache of Saul's reign might never have happened and the years of civil war after he died could have been avoided.
