

The Merciful Justice of God

Psalm 7

A Humble Sufferer

7:1-5

Spoken and written words can lead to gut-wrenching suffering and seriously wound others.

The godly David rushes to God for safety and refuge while desperately begging for His help.

Even while treated unjustly, David walks with humility and admits his own imperfection.

David hates not just evil in others but all wrong-doing, including his own.

Come to God _____ and boldly when treated unjustly.

A Saving, Righteous Judge

7:6-16

God passionately protects His godly children...

so boldly ask God to act.

God clearly sees the truth and perfectly evaluates all people...

so expect God to assess each situation and person.

God is the Righteous of the righteous and the Judge of the judges...

so hide behind God's shield and trust the Judge.

God provides hope for the sinner but eventually they will experience dramatic consequences...

so repent quickly.

so obey the Judge and let Him distribute justice.

Choose your path based on the _____ Judge who truly matters.

A Confident Worshiper

7:17

After his interactions with God, David emerges with confidence and worship.

David praises and thanks God based on His character and not a change in circumstances.

The beauty of righteousness and the Righteous One is celebrated.

Love righteousness and _____ the Righteous Judge.

David's Songs – Psalm 7
September 27-28, 2023

PSALM 27:12b ...for false witnesses have risen against me, and they breathe out violence.

JAMES 3:5-6 So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great things. How great a forest is set ablaze by such a small fire! And the tongue is a fire, a world of unrighteousness. The tongue is set among our members, staining the whole body, setting on fire the entire course of life, and set on fire by hell.

1 PETER 2:21b-23 ...because Christ has also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly.

PSALM 9:7-8 But the LORD sits enthroned forever; he has established his throne for justice, and he judges the world with righteousness; he judges the peoples with uprightness.

2 CORINTHIANS 5:21 For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

ACTS 3:19-20a “Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord...”
