

PRAY

James 5:13-20

Pray and praise God constantly as you walk with Him.

5:13

Our friendship with God is the foundational, ever-present relationship in our lives.

In seasons of trouble and difficulty, talk and listen to God.

When you experience joy, peace of mind, and courage, praise and sing to God.

Pray with and for each other in our struggles and temptations.

5:14-18

Our relationship with God calls us into a mutual, prayerful relationship with other Believers.

Elders care for the sick by asking God to heal and then trust God's sovereign hand.

Motivated by God's grace and a longing for holiness, we confess our sins to each other.

Believing in the great power of a righteous person's prayer, we pray for each other.

Like Elijah we persistently pray in line with God's Word and faith in God's power.

Prayerfully look out for each other.

5:19-20

Our relationships with God and others call us to help each other stay committed to the truth.

We watch out for each other, knowing the power of deception and the difficulty of life.

We demonstrate the courage, kindness, and wisdom to bring back a wanderer.

We put ourselves in relationships with others who will keep us walking in the truth.

ACTS 27:22 Yet now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

ACTS 27:25 So take heart, men, for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told.

1 CORINTHIANS 12:12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.

1 CORINTHIANS 12:25-27 ...that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together. Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.

ECCLESIASTES 4:9-12 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow. But woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up! Again, if two lie together, they keep warm, but how can one keep warm alone? And though a man might prevail against one who is alone, two will withstand him—a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

PSALM 32:3-4 For when I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long. For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer.

1 KINGS 18:1 After many days the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, "Go, show yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain upon the earth."

ROMANS 2:4 Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?
