

THE POWER OF A CHANGED LIFE

Living a Changed Life

ACTS 6:8-7:60

Now when they heard these things they were enraged, and they ground their teeth at him. But he, full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. And he said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God." But they cried out with a loud voice and stopped their ears and rushed together at him. Then they cast him out of the city and stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. And as they were stoning Stephen, he called out, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." And falling to his knees he cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." And when he had said this, he fell asleep. Acts 7:54-60

THE
CHANGED
LIFE Devotional Study

Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal His truth and wisdom as you go through this lesson.

1. Read Acts 6:8–7:60. When asked if the charges were true, Stephen responded with a sermon. List the people mentioned and the part they play in the history he is retelling.

“What interests many people most about Stephen is that he was the first Christian martyr. Luke’s main concern lies elsewhere, however. He emphasizes the vital role Stephen played in the development of the worldwide Christian mission through both his teaching and his death. Stephen’s martyrdom supplemented the influence of his teaching. Not only did it deeply impress Saul of Tarsus and contribute to his conversion, which led to his becoming the apostle to the Gentiles, but it was also the start of ‘a great persecution,’ which led to the scattering of the disciples ‘throughout Judea and Samaria’ (8:1). The church was shocked, even stunned by the martyrdom of Stephen and by the violent opposition that followed. But we can see how God’s providence used Stephen’s testimony in word and deed, through life and death, to promote the church’s mission.”

JOHN STOTT

“The only way a believer can live like Stephen is by dying to his sinful self. Those busy looking out for their own interests will have little time or inclination to abandon themselves and experience the grace Stephen experienced.”

JOHN MACARTHUR

2. What do you learn about God from Stephen’s sermon?

3. How are Stephen’s accusers actually guilty of that which they accused him?

4. Why does the true preaching of the Word of God lead some to an angry response?

5. As a follower of Jesus, how do you respond to the possibility of death?

6. How would you like the way you daily follow Jesus to be influenced by the example of Stephen’s life?

A WONDERFUL OFFER

Being a Christian isn’t based on membership in a local church or keeping a set of rules. It involves a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and an understanding of who He is and what He has done to provide man with a way to experience God’s love for us. Here’s how to know Jesus Christ as your personal Savior:

1. Realize that you are sinful and separated from God. (Romans 3:23; Isaiah 53:6)
 2. Recognize that the penalty for your sin is death—eternal separation from God and all that is good. (Romans 6:23; Hebrews 9:27)
 3. Understand that Jesus Christ took the penalty for your sin by dying in your place and that He rose again. (Romans 5:8; 2 Corinthians 5:21)
 4. Receive the free gift of salvation by trusting in Christ alone as your Savior. (Romans 4:4-5; Ephesians 2:8-9)
- “For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life.” (John 3:16 NASB) You can use this prayer to express your decision to God:
“Dear God, I know that I am a sinner. I believe that Jesus Christ died on the cross for me and rose from the dead. I trust in Him alone as the only way to get right with You. Thank You for the forgiveness of sins and the eternal life I now have. Amen.”
