

Are There Spiritual Strikeouts?

MATTHEW 26:30-35, 69-75

DO YOU HEAR
WHAT I HEAR?

I. Jesus knows us better than we know _____.

And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. Then Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away because of me this night. For it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee." Peter answered him, "Though they all fall away because of you, I will never fall away." Jesus said to him, "Truly, I tell you, this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you!" And all the disciples said the same. vv. 30-35

BASE YOUR BELIEF AND BEHAVIOR on what _____ says rather than what you think and feel.

II. Jesus knows our private commitments will be _____ in public.

Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. And a servant girl came up to him and said, "You also were with Jesus the Galilean." But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you mean." And when he went out to the entrance, another servant girl saw him, and she said to the bystanders, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth." And again he denied it with an oath: "I do not know the man." After a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, "Certainly you too are one of them, for your accent betrays you." Then he began to invoke a curse on himself and to swear, "I do not know the man." And immediately the rooster crowed. And Peter remembered the saying of Jesus, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." And he went out and wept bitterly. vv.69-75

TEMPTATION ESCALATION

1. unexpected
2. repeated
3. unrelenting

STAY CLOSE TO YOUR SHEPHERD who can _____ you through valley of the shadow of death.

DO YOU HEAR
WHAT I HEAR?
You are fully known,
and still fully loved,
forgiven and accepted
by _____.

Here's a glimpse at what you need to know for this week at Christ Chapel. If you'd like to find out even more, visit www.ccbcfamily.org/events.

1. Why might it be foolish to begin a sentence with the words, "I would never ..."?

2. Read Matthew 26:30-35, 69-75. When Peter disagreed with the Lord, how was this actually the beginning of his sin of denying Him? Why?

3. Why is our own human willpower inadequate to keep us from sinning?

4. What do you learn about God from the fact that Jesus did not yell at His disciples or disown them, even though He knew how they would abandon Him?

5. In what particular situation(s) coming up in the next week do you need to make it clear that you are a follower of Jesus Christ?

FOR THIS WEEK

SCRIPTURE MEMORY VERSE:

Matthew 26:34

Jesus said to him, "Truly, I tell you, this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times."

JOURNAL:

Matthew 26:30-35, 69-75

"As He prepared to die for the sins of the world, Jesus needed to teach the disciples the need of continually dying to themselves of never trusting in themselves. ... As the disciples soon learned that last night with their Lord, without His help faithfulness to Him is impossible. Like many believers, they foolishly mistook their good intentions for strength. They thought their ability to handle temptation and intimidation was greater than it was.... That is a lesson every child of God needs to learn and relearn. Because it is not difficult to stand firm in doctrine and moral standards when we are among fellow Christians, we are tempted to think we would never desert our Lord by compromising those truths and standards. But when we are out in the unbelieving world and are separated from the strength of Christian fellowship, we discover how unfounded such self-confidence is."

JOURNAL Matthew 26:30-35, 69-75
