

THE MAKING OF A MOVEMENT

ACTS 18:24-28

I. Apollos was a disciple doing the most with what he knew.

Now a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, competent in the Scriptures. He had been instructed in the way of the Lord. And being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John. vv. 24-25

BE A DISCIPLE WHO STRIVES TO ACCURATELY _____ JESUS.

II. Apollos met disciples doing the most with what they had.

He began to speak boldly in the synagogue, but when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately. v. 26

What disciples did ...	The effect it had ...	Therefore ...
They identified his potential	Apollos was encouraged	Share a _____
They invited him aside	Apollos was engaged	Share your _____
They informed him of what they knew	Apollos was equipped	Share your _____

MAKE DISCIPLES BY UTILIZING WHAT YOU HAVE TO _____ UP OTHERS.

III. Apollos applied what he learned to continue to make Christ known.

And when he wished to cross to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who through grace had believed, for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, showing by the Scriptures that the Christ was Jesus. vv. 27-28

REACH OUT TO HELP OTHERS LEARN ABOUT JESUS WITH _____ AND TRUTH.

REVEALING
THE UNKNOWN
GOD

The making of a MOVEMENT ...

... always includes
the making of DISCIPLES.

MAKE

REVEALING THE UNKNOWN GOD

DEVOTIONAL & HOME GROUP STUDY

Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal His truth and wisdom as you go through this lesson.

1. Read Acts 18:24-28. What were Apollos' strengths, both in his abilities and in his character?

"At the heart of a biblical attitude to the Word is a childlike eagerness to be fed. Peter urged, 'Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation, now that you have tasted that the Lord is good' (1 Pet 2:2-3). This applies to both new and mature Christians. We are all disciples of Christ, which means we are all learners. The graciousness of the helper and the teachableness of the helpee give an environment conducive to great scholars taking the role of helpee and learning new truths."

2. What approach did Priscilla and Aquilla use "to explain the way of God more accurately" to Apollos? What are some other ways they could have confronted him that thankfully they did not?

3. How is the example of Priscilla and Aquilla one we should always try to emulate? How should we emulate Apollos?

4. Would you say that you're "doing the most" with what you have? How did the sermon help you see more possibilities for your life and ministry with what God has given you?

5. Which of the "share" items under Therefore ... on the sermon notes do you feel most enthusiastic about? What is your plan to apply this to people you know?

6. Spend some time in reflection on this Scripture passage and the sermon. Ask the Holy Spirit to direct you in the way the Lord would have you live out what you've heard.

A WONDERFUL OFFER

Being a Christian isn't based on membership in a local church or keeping a set of rules. It involves a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and an understanding of who He is and what He has done to provide man with a way to experience God's love for us. Here's how to know Jesus Christ as your personal Savior:

1. Realize that you are sinful and separated from God. (Romans 3:23; Isaiah 53:6)
 2. Recognize that the penalty for your sin is death—eternal separation from God and all that is good. (Romans 6:23; Hebrews 9:27)
 3. Understand that Jesus Christ took the penalty for your sin by dying in your place and that He rose again. (Romans 5:8; 2 Corinthians 5:21)
 4. Receive the free gift of salvation by trusting in Christ alone as your Savior. (Romans 4:4-5; Ephesians 2:8-9)
- "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life." (John 3:16 NASB) You can use this prayer to express your decision to God:
- "Dear God, I know that I am a sinner. I believe that Jesus Christ died on the cross for me and rose from the dead. I trust in Him alone as the only way to get right with You. Thank You for the forgiveness of sins and the eternal life I now have. Amen."*

COMING UP AT CHRIST CHAPEL

Here's a glimpse at what you need to know for this week at Christ Chapel. If you'd like to find out even more, visit www.ccbcfamily.org/events.

QUARTERLY DAY OF PRAYER As a church family, we love going to God together! On Monday, Nov. 6, from noon to 1 p.m., join us in the Oak Room as we spend time in Scripture, are fervent in prayer and rejoice in who God is and what He has done. We'd love to see you there! Visit www.ccbcfamily.org/qdop to learn more.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD is a ministry that sends Christmas gifts and the gospel message to children in need around the world every year — and you can help by filling a shoebox this holiday season! When you leave the service today, make sure to grab a shoebox or two right outside your worship venue. We'll be collecting shoeboxes till Sunday, Nov. 19. Learn more by visiting www.ccbcfamily.org/occ.

HAVE YOU MET OUR JOURNEY TEAM? When you leave today, visit our Next Steps kiosk! There, you'll be introduced to our Journey Team, formerly known as the Connect Ministry. As you continue in your own personal discipleship to Be, Make and Reach, this team will walk beside you to equip and encourage you every step of the way on your journey here at Christ Chapel.

THE 5 P.M. IS COMING BACK It's evident that God is moving in our communities as more people begin attending our church, and as God moves hearts to hear the gospel, we want to create more space for that opportunity to happen. So, we are opening a third service! This won't begin without your help. Will you pray about moving your service time to 5 p.m.? Text PIONEER to 24253!

HOPE FOR THE HOLIDAYS It's natural to experience both the joy and difficulty that comes with the season, and we want to be a help to you! For anyone who has lost a loved one or has been walking through divorce, we'd love to talk with you more about upcoming seminars Soul Care will be hosting. Hear practical ways you can navigate the ups and downs and how to find hope in the middle of the holidays. Visit www.ccbcfamily.org/soulcare to learn more.

OUR FOSTER AND ADOPT MINISTRY WOULD LIKE TO INVITE YOU to lunch on Sunday, Nov. 12 starting at 12:30 p.m. As a church family, we have a heart for those in the foster and adopt community and want to step into meeting needs and offering support whenever possible. Visit www.ccbcfamily.org/lunch. If you would like to join us or learn about other ways you can be a part!

EMBARK We're here to help you find a place for your community, gifts and faith to deepen! Embark, formerly Connecting Point, is where we begin to walk with you as you journey here at Christ Chapel. Classes are about to begin, and we can't wait for you to be a part! Sign up today at www.ccbcfamily.org/embark.

LOOKING FOR THE CONNECT CARD? Scan the QR code here to fill out a Connect Card. Our team will reach out this week to answer your questions and tell you more about Christ Chapel.
